

Legal assistance for caregiving

One of the many benefits of your Legal Plan

As parents age, it's not uncommon for adult children to step in to help them handle financial and legal matters. Making decisions about long-term care or estate planning can be very complicated, and it can be hard to know where to turn.

In times like these, it is important to seek professional advice. With MetLife Legal Plans, you receive unlimited access to a network of experienced attorneys who are knowledgeable in matters your parents face as they age.

With the Legal Plan, you can consult with an attorney or have them review documents related to Medicare/Medicaid, nursing home agreements or parents' estate planning documents.¹

Consider this real member story:⁴

"Recently my mother passed away, leaving many issues with her estate. I contacted MetLife Legal Plans and you provided a list of attorneys in my area to help my sister and I through a complex process. Our attorney was more than my sister and I could ever expect. He was responsive, patient, brilliant in his expertise of law with not only excellent presentation skill but people skills as well."

Even if you only use the Legal Plan once in a year, the plan will likely pay for itself. MetLife Legal Plans also provides coverage for many other personal legal matters — such as estate planning, civil litigation defense and identity theft issues.
